

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

Ogden Society Folk Respond to Call of Martha Society's Tenth Annual Affair

Mrs. John S. Lewis is president of the Martha society of Ogden, who on Tuesday last entertained in the Berthana at the opening event of the social season in Ogden.

The proceeds will be used in providing for the new day nursery on Elizabeth street and Washington avenue, and a goodly sum was derived from the annual event.

The Martha society has a recognized place in this community for the excellent work that is accomplished among the children under their jurisdiction, the work itself involving a large expenditure for which dependence must be placed on the generosity of the friends of this organization. That they have always responded wonderfully is a matter of record in the society. This year was merely a repetition of the experience of former years and while not so many were present, less expense was incurred in the scheme of decorating and serving refreshments.

Delightful Showers for Miss Beatrice Morley, A Bride-to-Be Numbered among the pleasant affairs of the week in Ogden were several showers for Miss Beatrice Morley, whose engagement to Mr. Con J. Wilson was recently announced and whose wedding will occur next Wednesday, November 28, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morley, 147 Twenty-seventh street.

Tuesday evening an enjoyable event was held at the home of Mrs. Ella Wilson on Ogden avenue, when Mrs. Wilson and her daughter, Miss Phyllis, gave a parcel shower for the bride-to-be. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games and luncheon was served by the hostesses.

The honor guest received some very pretty gifts tendered by the following: Mesdames Harry Furdy, William Fiet, Alice Connolly, Clements Fuller, Nellie Rasmussen, Will Rutledge, Wilford Wilson, Vivian Pickett, Alice La Freniere, Bryan, Fred Wheeler, Ella Wilson and Mrs. Hansen; Misses Violet Johnson, Eleanor and Elva Johnson and Phyllis Wilson.

Miss Ellen Morley entertained for her sister on Wednesday evening at a parcel shower when twenty-six girl friends came with pretty gifts for the bride-elect. A jolly time was spent until a later hour when Miss Morley served a tempting luncheon. Plates were laid for Miss Meda Stone, Miss Alice Stone, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Miss Fern Wilson, Miss Phyllis Wilson, Miss N. Blair, Miss Rilla Newton, Miss Nora Cawley, Miss Blanch Frazer, Miss Pearl Morrison, Mrs. Ethel Cowlishaw, Miss Elsie Frazer, Miss Belle Child, Miss Grace Best, Miss Eva Porter, Miss Mary Morley, Miss Bessie Doney, Mrs. Elvadia Folker, Miss Martha Lethgowe, Miss Thelma Anderson, Mrs. Mamie Donaldson, Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Ida Hassell.

A novel kitchen shower was tendered Miss Morley on Friday afternoon of this week when Mrs. Dean Porter, Mrs. Edgar Best and Mrs. Neph Stevens entertained at the home of Mrs. Porter. Music and delightful games furnished the afternoon's diversion, a feature of which was the opening of the parcels when many splendid articles of kitchenware were revealed. Those present at this pleasant affair were: Mesdames James Clark, Charles Fisher, Alonzo Jones, Belle Croft, Thomas Morley, Carl Weiss, C. A. Porter, Mrs. Willett, Miss Eva Porter and Miss Mabel Porter.

MET ON FRIDAY

The pillow case section of the Presbyterian church bazaar held a meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. Taylor, 2555 Fowler avenue when the ladies turned in all the work they had completed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Fox, 2546 Fowler avenue, next Friday, November 30, when all unfinished work must be completed and handed in.

MRS. JOHN S. LEWIS

SUPPER IS ENJOYED

Thursday evening from 6 o'clock until all were served a supper was given in the basement of the First Christian church on Twenty-fourth street and Madison avenue. The ladies of the church proved themselves splendid cooks and charming hostesses at this affair which not only was a supper but a general friendship meeting.

WED IN OGDEN

Thursday in Ogden, Miss Lottie Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Day of Layton and Mr. Leonard Sandall, son of Mrs. Ellen Sandall also of Layton, Utah, were married. Both young people are popular in the community in which they reside. Mr. Sandall is engaged in the hardware business in Layton.

TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Next Friday, November 30 at 7:30 o'clock in the Fourth Ward Amusement hall a golden wedding celebration will be given by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Belpap, honoring the fiftieth year of that venerable couple's wedding day.

Invitations have been issued to a large number of relatives and friends who will be present to enjoy the event.

WEDDED IN OGDEN

Miss Grace Cavanaugh of Goldfield, Nev., was married at St. Joseph's church Monday morning at 9 o'clock by Father Cushman. Miss Cavanaugh is a popular young lady of Goldfield. Her father is a mining man.

MRS. LEWIS HALL

In society circles this week an interesting wedding occurred quietly, however, when Miss Margaret May Loughran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loughran, became the bride of Mr. Lewis Hall, also of this city. The ceremony was performed Wednesday evening, November 21 at the home of Monsignor Father P. M. Cushman, and immediately following, Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for a few days' stay at the Newhouse in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall are now at home to their friends at 278 Twenty-eighth street in the Stilwell terrace.

The groom is a very well known young fireman of the Southern Pacific Railroad company. The happy couple left on No. 19, S. P., for the coast for fifteen days.

DANCING PARTY

On Tuesday evening of this week, one hundred couples spent a delightful time in the Royal dancing hall, where the butchers and meat cutters entertained at a dancing party. A tempting luncheon was served by these royal hosts.

EAGLES' DANCE

A large number of Eagles and guests of the organization enjoyed the Thursday night dancing party in the hall this week. Miss Thatcher's orchestra furnished a fine program of dance numbers.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly society of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd are holding a cake and candy sale in McIntyre's drug store this afternoon, the proceeds derived from which go to the Red Cross.

PARCEL SHOWER

Miss Grace Cavanaugh of Goldfield, Nev., was the guest of honor at a parcel shower, given by Mrs. Joseph Westemier at her home on Thirteenth street Monday afternoon. Miss Cavanaugh received many beautiful and useful gifts. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. J. W. Card, Mrs. J. O. Read and Mrs. R. G. Frost assisting in serving. Mrs. Maud Lloyd, Mrs. Mary Farley and Mrs. J. W. Card entertained at the piano. Those invited were: Mrs. J. W. Card, Mrs. J. E. Messenger, Mrs. Gertrude Bryan, Mrs. Gussie Hoyt, Mrs. G. L. Ware, Mrs. Alvin Rollow, Mrs. J. J. Rowe, Mrs. N. A. Morrison, Miss Bertha Cavanaugh, Mrs. Jas. Maher, Miss Grace Cavanaugh, Mrs. J. O. Read, Mrs. Ray Brizze, Mrs. R. G. Frost, Mrs. B. S. Stone, Mrs. Maud Lloyd, Mrs. Mary Farley, Mrs. Herbert Snyder, Miss Elsie Rowe and Miss Pearl Westemier.

NINTH WARD PRESENTS DRAMA

The Ninth Ward Dramatic club, on Thursday night, presented the four-act drama, "Why Art Thou Cast Down." The play was given at the ward amusement hall for the benefit of the Mutual Improvement association, and a capacity audience witnessed the performance. As a special patriotic feature, the arch of the stage was covered with American flags and at the close of the performance the orchestra played "The Star-Spangled Banner." It was staged under the direction of Miss Sula Heninger, and much praise was accorded the director and actors, especially Miss Frances Marsh and Herman Koldevyn, who played the leading roles. Other members of the cast were Alexander Faddis, Robert Hovey, Mrs. Wangsard, Ethel Owens, Earl W. Owens, Edward Bingham, Lillian Bingham, Fere de Rouse, James Vellinga, Delbert Foulger, Joseph Perceus, Heber Oborn and Helen Stone. The play was repeated on Friday night and again enjoyed by a large number.

PETERSON-PARKER

An interesting wedding of the week and one which came as a surprise to their many friends, occurred on Thursday of this week when Miss Ruth Peterson, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Herbert C. Peterson and Roy Parker were married in Salt Lake City by Reverend W. W. Fleetwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker will make their home in this city where Mr. Parker is employed by the Utah Construction company in their office.

MRS. BISHOP LEAVES FOR COAST

Mrs. J. M. Bishop left Ogden this afternoon at 4 o'clock over the Los Angeles limited for Los Angeles where she will spend a short time before going down to San Diego to reside during the winter months. Mrs. Bishop has been in Ogden for the past three weeks and underwent an operation at the Dee hospital. She formerly resided in this city and was prominent in club and social circles. Mr. Bishop and son Paul are on their ranch at Milburn, Wyoming.

CLUB Calendar

Bohemian Club.
The Bohemian club, composed of Ogden's social society folk, will give its first dancing party of the social season next Tuesday evening, November 27, in the Berthana.

Ladies' Literary Society.
The Ladies' Literary society will meet with Mrs. Florence Dunn, 531 Twenty-fourth street, Wednesday afternoon, November 28.

X. G. Club
Miss Elizabeth Browning, 505 Twenty-seventh street will entertain the little girls of the X. G. club, November 29 at her home.

Conservatory of Music
Quite a number of small pupils of the Conservatory of Music are being trained for an opera which will be an interesting part of the program in the benefit show for Battery B.

The pupils of the Conservatory have just begun their second term since the opening early in the fall and as marked advance in registration is shown. The song and similar classes are especially popular with the students this year and rapid advancement is being made.

Child Culture Club.
The Child Culture club held its meeting one week earlier than usual because of Thanksgiving day occurring on their regular schedule and on Thursday of this week an exceptionally pleasing afternoon was spent at the Berthana with Mrs. Ralph Roberts as hostess.

Mrs. Joel Harris gave a splendid paper on the chess subject in the afternoon program "Educational Value of Recreation and Play." Her article was capably handled and an interesting discussion led by Mrs. S. S. Smith, followed. Mrs. Falck gave the current events, all of course, proving instructive and interesting. The club members and Miss Venus Williams and Miss Winifred Hutchison proved themselves delightful entertainers with violin and piano selections.

Before adjournment, light refreshments were served.

The club will hold its next meeting at the Berthana December 6, with Mrs. E. O. Watt as Mrs. Rowlands and Mrs. Dan Pugh hostesses.

Sempre Musical Society.
The Sempre Musical club will meet on December 1 with Miss Cleone Rich as hostess. A splendid program for this meeting has been arranged.

Royal Neighbors.
The Royal Neighbors will entertain members and friends at a card party, Monday, November 26, in their hall. A good time is assured.

Past Noble Grands.
The Past Noble Grands club met last Thursday with Mrs. Wells as hostess at her home, 345 Patterson avenue. Twenty-two of the club members gathered to spend the afternoon hours in knitting and sewing for the Red Cross. As a fitting close to a busy few hours, Mrs. Wells served a tempting luncheon.

The club has adjourned meeting during the holidays and will not meet again until January, 1918, when Mrs. Warrington, 152 Patterson avenue, will be hostess.

These ladies have been working diligently on Red Cross knitting and sewing and their efforts have been realized in the completion of many useful articles.

Home Culture Club.
Thursday afternoon of this week the Home Culture club met with Mrs. J. E. Beeson, 1216 Twenty-fifth street. At this meeting the club ladies decided to forego one literary meeting a month to devote this time to Red Cross sewing, especially the making of bandages.

The program for the day was one of special interest, the author "Brownings" and his works being the topic of discussion and the foundation for two well composed papers, one by Mrs. William Crawford, dealing with Browning's "Saul," while Mrs. Clayton Coolidge gave "Rabbi Ben Ezra," by Browning. During the social hour which followed, refreshments were served. Mrs. Markle was guest of honor and there were present a number of old members of the club.

Drama Club.

A meeting of the Drama Club of Ogden is being held this afternoon in the Maids of Matrons club rooms, with Miss Viola Clancy and Miss Louise Pierce as hostesses. A program was given including a paper on "Moliere and the French Drama" by Miss Inez Adams, a reading, "Pellens and Mellisande," by Masterlink, given by Mrs. T. Earl Pardee; piano selections from the French by Mrs. Vera Frey Beeson, and other numbers. Because of the conservation campaign in effect throughout the country at present the serving of refreshments at the meetings of the Drama club has been dispensed with.

1916 500 Club.
Mrs. John Smalley, 3161 Washington avenue, entertained the 1916 500 club members last Thursday evening at her home. The ladies enjoyed several games of 500, the honors going to Mesdames Shipley, Adams, Baker and Baumeister. Later Mrs. Smalley served a refreshing supper. Her dining table was pretty with pink and white carnations as the centerpiece. Mrs. Ludwig will be hostess to the club at its next meeting, Thursday evening, December 6.

St. Joseph's Sewing Society
The ladies of St. Joseph's Sewing society held their regular meeting last Thursday, November 22, with Mrs. Bunker as hostess.

FOR BRIDE-ELECT
On Thursday evening of this week, Miss Edith Gullickson, a bride-to-be, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Margaret Thorsted at her home. The rooms were profusely decorated in pink and white. During the evening games, music and dancing was enjoyed and a luncheon was served by the hostess, Miss Gullickson was the recipient of some very pretty gifts.

Following are the names of those present at this interesting affair: Mesdames Rhea Butler, Margaret Thorsted, Thelma Butler, Millie Butler, Edith Gullickson, Ida Blodgett, Rose Smith, Ruth Gullickson, Messrs. Otto Thorsted, Cleve Poulson, Hyrum Poulson, George Poulson, Joseph Poulson, Victor Olson, Earl Gullickson, G. Gullickson, Mrs. Ellen Gullickson and Mrs. O. J. Thorsted.

PRETTY AFFAIR FOR BRIDE-TO-BE
Mrs. O. J. Thorsted of 518 Fourth street, presided over one of the most delightful affairs of the week when on Thursday afternoon she entertained a number of friends and relatives in compliment to Miss Edith Gullickson, whose wedding will be an interesting event in social circles early in December.

The lovely Thorsted home was made doubly attractive with pink and white carnations arranged in vases throughout the parlors and dining room.

As a centerpiece for the dining table pink and white carnations were placed effectively. Jardinieres of ferns and bouquets of carnations were arranged in every nook and corner and lent an air of fragrance throughout the home. The afternoon was pleasantly spent, an interesting feature being the opening of parcels by the bride-to-be. Many exceptional and extremely pretty gifts of silverware, linen, cut glass, hand-painted china, articles of furniture and a number of attractive pictures were tendered Miss Gullickson.

Late in the afternoon the hostess,

Attractive Ogden Girl to Be Membered Among November's Charming Brides

Miss Margaret Helen Shupe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Shupe and one of Ogden's most attractive young ladies, will be membered among November's brides when on Wednesday next she will wed Mr. Graham C. Bishop of this city.

The wedding ceremony will occur at the home of the bride's parents, 722 Twenty-sixth street, and will be followed by a reception at which a number of relatives and intimate friends will be present. The couple will make their home in Ogden at 464 Twenty-eighth street.

Informal Reception For Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Hyslop

Quite the most delightful affair of the week following the Martha society ball of Tuesday was the reception tendered Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Hyslop of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McIntyre, 2560 Jefferson avenue.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild and vestrymen of the church were hostesses and hosts at this affair, which was entirely informal and one of unusual pleasure.

The McIntyre home was prettily decorated for the occasion with potted begonias and ferns arranged throughout the rooms in artistic manner. An attractive basket of begonias graced the center of the dining table.

During the evening over one hundred members of the Episcopal congregation and friends called to greet the new rector and his charming wife and to enjoy the hospitality of the Guild ladies and vestrymen.

In the parlor, the Misses Dorothy Prout and Ada Child entertained with choice violin and piano selections, while in the dining room the ladies served tempting refreshments.

Reverend and Mrs. Hyslop are from Aberdeen, S. D., and their advent into church and social circles of Ogden was one of enjoyment.

The Fifth ward W. C. T. U. met last Wednesday afternoon, November 21, with Miss Mines, 654 Twenty-fourth street. The devotional was led by Miss Newton and Mrs. C. W. Hadley had charge of the program for the afternoon. Quite a number of this ward's members were present.

Mrs. Joseph M. Gries and daughter, Roberta Mae left for Dallas, Texas, Friday where they were called because of the serious illness of Mrs. Gries' father.

Mayor and Mrs. McBride of Elko, Nevada, have returned to their home after a delightful stay in Ogden where they were entertained by Mayor and Mrs. Heywood and society folk of the city. Mayor and Mrs. McBride were domiciled at the Virginia, Ogden's loveliest home hotel.
